To whom it may concern:

I am writing in behalf of Herman Manigo who has been a valued employee of Food For Free for five years. During that time I have come to know and respect him and I am aware of the struggles he has had trying to keep his family together and to be supportive of his children.

In his present difficulties regarding his son Mugo, I understand that Mugo had been coming to his father's home on occasion to eat or shower or just to visit with his family, but has not been staying there as he well knows that it is not permissible. It has been long and hard for Herman to get stable housing for his family and he would not do anything to jeopardize that. We certainly do not want to see yet another family homeless. At this point Mugo, with Herman's support, seems to be on his way into responsible adulthood.

I would add that Herman is an exemplary employee in a job that requires management skills, sensitivity and compassion. He has given back to the community and continues to volunteer at the local school, at our farm and has been helpful to his neighbors. He is making every effort to comply with the regulations of the CHA, even taking out a restraining order on Mugo. I believe he is worthy of every consideration in this case.

Please do not hesitate to call me with any questions. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Sincerely,

Janet Murray, Co-Director
