Aug. 3, 1870

Ordered

That the Committee on Roads & Bridges, report, at the next meeting of the Board, the amount of money that, in their judgment will be needed to complete all work that has been commenced in the Street Department, and is now unfinished; also, an estimate of the cost of laying a brick sidewalk on Magazine ^{street} ~~as contemplated by a recent order before the Board~~; an estimate of the expense of a brick sidewalk on the East side of North Avenue from Harvard Square to the Railroad Bridge; and on Broadway from Court Street to Ellen St., as prayed for by Josiah Burrage and others. And further to report the probable amount of damages, if any, to the abutments on Broadway between Fayette and Ellen Streets, in consequence of a change of grade, should a sidewalk be laid, as prayed for ~~in case a change of grade should be ordered by the Board~~
