WHEREAS: The strength of a people is often expressed in the beauty of its music; and

WHEREAS: Across the nation, the month of February is traditionally celebrated as Black History Month, a time when all Americans can reflect on and enjoy the many contributions which generations of African-Americans have made to the country and to the world; and

WHEREAS: The strength of the African-American people is expressed eloquently in that form of music we call Gospel, a music partially born of deprivation and denial, and expressed with spirituality and joy; and

WHEREAS: The Multicultural Task Force of the Cambridge Department of Human Services is presenting a Gospel Concert celebrating Black History entitled "Lift Every Voice" on Friday, January 28, 1994, 7:30 p.m. at the Fitzgerald Auditorium of the Cambridge Rindge and Latin School; and

WHEREAS: "Lift Every Voice," hosted by Denise Simmons and Donnell Patterson, will feature the music of the Cambridge Community Chorus under William Thomas, the Cambridge Rindge and Latin Gospel Choir, the concord Chorale, Ms. Ruth Hamilton, the Inspirational Choir of Berea Seventh Day Adventist Church, Mr. Gordon Michaels, the St. Paul A.M.E. Praise and Workshop Dancers, and Voices of Hope; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby urge all citizens to embrace this opportunity to enjoy and appreciate the richness of spirit and celebration to be found in gospel music.

In City Council January 24, 1994.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
