- WHEREAS: This summer Cambridge Babe Ruth made history by placing third in the 2001 Babe Ruth League World Series (13-15 age division) held in Hamilton, New Jersey; and
- WHEREAS: Embarking on its breathtaking journey to the World Series, this Cambridge all-star team, also known as "the comeback kids," dazzled their way through three rounds of previous tournament play, securing its place in New Jersey through District, Eastern Massachusetts and New England regional titles; and
- WHEREAS: Buoyed by its victory against the premier championship teams from Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont, Cambridge entered the World Series tournament energized to challenge winning teams from the seven other regional tournaments—British Columbia, Florida, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Louisiana and Pennsylvania—along with New Jersey's host teams—Cherry Hill, Hamilton and Nottingham—and a national team from Italy; and
- WHEREAS: Playing six games over two rounds of competition, Cambridge persevered through a grueling schedule and disappointing loss to the ultimate World Series victor, Hawaii, to reach the Championship round of the World Series, becoming the pride of the City of Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: During closing ceremonies, Dan Cohen and Dan Nezcypor were named to the All-Tournament Team; and
- WHEREAS: This success reflects the extraordinary skill and determination of players, the overwhelming support of their families and the Cambridge Babe Ruth Program, and the experienced coaching of manager George Alexander and coaches George Hinds and Marco Giampa; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge team was an ideal ambassador of this city, highlighting a cross-section of the Cambridge community and displaying the highest degree of sportsmanship; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council goes on record congratulating the Cambridge team for its record setting season and Third-Place title in the 2001 Babe Ruth League World Series. This team consisted of players Will Clift, Dan Cohen, Matt Ferrara, Paul Hinds, Marcus Johnson, Mark Killoren, Matt Knosp, Jack Maloney, Dan Nezcypor, Corey Normile, Luis Ortiz, Ken Rudgis, Tom Trainor, Terry West; manager George Alexander; and coaches George Hinds and Marco Giampa; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council wishes to extend its sincere gratitude to George Alexander, whose dedicated service to Cambridge youth sports for more than two decades has had a lifelong impact on hundreds of young athletes; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this "summer to remember" consisted of 19 games played and a final record of 17 wins and 2 losses; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge team has earned the select recognition of being the first Cambridge team in history to advance to World Series play and has left behind a legacy that will be forever remembered by Cambridge sluggers and baseball fans from past and future generations.
