IN CITY COUNCIL

October 22, 1990

VICE MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: Within the City of Cambridge there are very few opportunities for people from all our diverse neighborhoods to come together at one cultural event; and
- WHEREAS: A city-wide cultural project can bring together people from diverse communities in joyful collaboration; and
- WHEREAS: Within the City of Cambridge there are many people, from diverse cultural and socio-economic backgrounds, who are also accomplished musicians - both instrumental and vocal; and
- WHEREAS: These musicians can be found within our schools, churches, and universities, as well as through advertisements in our local newspapers; and
- WHEREAS: It is both the pleasure and the duty of this City Council to encourage events that serve to benefit all the people of Cambridge; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council request the City Manager to direct the Cambridge Arts Council and its Director to determine the feasibility of creating a Cambridge Chorus and Orchestra and offering public performances of Handel's "Messiah" in the Fall of 1990.

In City Council October 22, 1990.
 Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
