Smashing race for U.S.

By MICHAEL GEE

Bob Kempainen ran the fastest Boston Marathon ever by an American man yesterday. Unfortunately for him, the United States wasn't the only country breaking records.
Kempainen, a 27-year-old University of Minnesota medical student from Minneapolis, ran a 2:08:47 to break by five seconds the record set by Alberto Salazar when he won the 1982 Boston Marathon. But on the day Cosmas Ndeti won with a course record 2:07:15.
"I'm excited to run fast, but I finished seventh," said Kempainen, who graduated from Dartmouth.
Kempainen was among the lead
