WHO DOES THE COUNCIL LISTEN TO?

The poor and elderly people of Cambridge have worked for a full year to get the City Council to pass laws that will ease the housing crisis in Cambridge.

THE CITY COUNCIL HAS NOT PASSED ONE ORDINANCE TO SOLVE HOUSING PROBLEMS!!

Now the Council may break its silence at last!

A powerful real estate lobby has proposed a bill saying that tenants with rent problems will go before a board of seven landlords to solve their difficulties! Such generosity we don't need. The board will help the landlords, but it certainly won't help the housing problem of Cambridge.

If the City Council votes for the landlord proposal, we will know who they really listen to.
