IN CITY COUNCIL
September 11, 1989

MAYOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: Our emergency medical services system provides life-saving care to citizens in need in every city and town of Massachusetts and is a vital and essential service to the citizens of our communities; and
- WHEREAS: Thousands of our police and fire department members, physicians, nurses and emergency medical technicians have been trained in the life-saving care and treatment of medical and trauma emergencies; and
- WHEREAS: Thousands of our citizens have learned to access their local emergency medical services systems and are continuing to learn techniques of First Aid and Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation so that they may help their fellow man in time of need; and
- WHEREAS: Concerned citizens and officials are serving on emergency medical care committees throughout the state and guide the development and continual improvement of a comprehensive emergency medical care system; and
- WHEREAS: The Office of Emergency Medical Services of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health in cooperation with the American College of Emergency Physicians is sponsoring the thirteenth annual Emergency Medical Services Week as a time to recognize the importance of the service; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby proclaim the week of September 17 through September 23, 1989, EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES WEEK in the City of Cambridge.
