CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

The undersigned respectfully pray

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

We four amateur musicians respectfully request permission to play classical string quartets on sidewalk areas in the vicinity of Harvard Square, primarily on weekends. We enjoy performing for other people and believe from previous experience that our music is thoroughly enjoyed in turn by a wide variety of listeners and onlookers. Music on the streets enhances an urban area for passers by and provides a stimulating interlude for those people who do wish to stop and listen. We furthermore believe that our particular instruments, two violins, a viola, and cello, are underrepresented in free public performance and that our repertoire of Mozart, Haydn, and Beethoven deserves greater opportunity to be heard. It is with these aims at enriching the musical activity of Cambridge that we request permission to perform.
