

City of Cambridge

48.

IN CITY COUNCIL

JUNE 12, 1995

COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: In 1991, the Quincy Square Design Review Committee, which was appointed by the City Manager and included citizens and City employees, put in many hours of work to review plans for changes to Quincy Square; and

WHEREAS: After the Quincy Square Committee recommended a design in 1991, the project had to wait until after the sewer work in the area, and now is going forward again; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council express its appreciation to all persons, both citizens and City employees who have been involved in the process to date; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct all the appropriate departments involved with the Quincy Square Plan to hold a series of meetings in the affected area with notice to affected neighborhoods and abutters, churches and other institutions in the area, and all persons who spoke at the June 12, 1995 City Council meeting, and also posting of the plans and meeting notices on site and at the public library; and upon completion of these meetings that the City conduct a post card survey; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct the Community Development Department to inquire as to whether Graham Gund, Architect for the abutting Inn at Harvard Square, would be willing to give input on the design, and further that Community Development Department and the Committee review the previous design competition held concerning this area; and be it further

ORDERED: That during this process there be consideration as to whether plan notifications are necessary to prevent noisy congregations of people in the area.

In City Council June 12, 1995

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

COUNCILLOR TOOMEY RECORDED IN THE NEGATIVE

City of Cambridge

48.

IN CITY COUNCIL

JUNE 12, 1995

COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: In 1991, the Quincy Square Design Review Committee, which was appointed by the City Manager and included citizens and City employees, put in many hours of work to review plans for changes to Quincy Square; and

WHEREAS: After the Quincy Square Committee recommended a design in 1991, the project had to wait until after the sewer work in the area, and now is going forward again; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council express its appreciation to all persons, both citizens and City employees who have been involved in the process to date; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct all the appropriate departments involved with the Quincy Square Plan to hold a series of meetings in the affected area with notice to affected neighborhoods and abutters, churches and other institutions in the area, and all persons who spoke at the June 12, 1995 City Council meeting, and also posting of the plans and meeting notices on site and at the public library; and upon completion of these meetings that the City conduct a post card survey; and be it further

ORDERED: That Community Development Department inquire as to whether Graham Gund, Architect for the abutting Inn at Harvard Square, would be willing to give input on the design and that Community Development Department and the Committee review the previous design competition held concerning this area; and be it further

ORDERED: That during this process there be consideration as to whether plan notifications are necessary to prevent noisy congregations of people in the area.

In City Council June 12, 1995

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

COUNCILLOR TOOMEY RECORDED IN THE NEGATIVE

CM-259

Non Consent Order #48

Councillor Sullivan re: Quincy Square Design Plan.

In City Council June 12, 1995