to the members of the Council of Cambridge.

It is with great appreciation I write this letter to you.

My father, Angelo Graci would be so proud, as I am honored by this resolution.

My dad's best memories were of the years he worked at the Cambridge Court House.

I was also moved by the Deputy Sheriff's office for leading the funeral procession. I could almost see a smile on dad's face as he was being lead to his final resting place.

I placed in his casket his badge for he never went anywhere without it, and one of his documents of Commission of Qualified Civil Officer.

It is with great pride and love, I accept this resolution on behalf of my dad, Angelo Graci who we will all miss.

Sincerely, Deborah Pace, daughter of
