

City of Cambridge

2.

IN CITY COUNCIL
March 28, 1994

MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is home to people of diverse ethnic backgrounds who have come seeking a higher quality of life for themselves and their families, there being dozens of languages spoken by students in the Cambridge school system; and

WHEREAS: In Cambridge, there is a growing number of immigrant and refugee families in need of English language schools so that they may contribute their full potential to society; and

WHEREAS: The potential of many of these residents is enhanced by their enrollment in English as a Second Language courses in public schools, adult education programs, and colleges; and

WHEREAS: Our community is enriched by the presence of international students, immigrants, and refugees who serve as resources in furthering our understanding of global and cultural issues; and

WHEREAS: Indeed, it is this multicultural spirit of discovery and diversity which makes Cambridge the wonderful, exciting, and unique place which it is; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby express its most sincere appreciation to all of the English as a Second Language teachers in Cambridge who are dedicated to providing high quality instruction to all seeking better ability in English; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby declare April 6, 1994 to be celebrated as English as a Second Language Day in the city.

In City Council March 28, 1994.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

2.

IN CITY COUNCIL
March 28, 1994

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is home to people of diverse ethnic backgrounds who have come seeking a higher quality of life for themselves and their families, there being dozens of languages spoken by students in the Cambridge school system; and

WHEREAS: In Cambridge, there is a growing number of immigrant and refugee families in need of English language schools so that they may contribute their full potential to society; and

WHEREAS: The potential of many of these residents is enhanced by their enrollment in English as a Second Language courses in public schools, adult education programs, and colleges; and

WHEREAS: Our community is enriched by the presence of international students, immigrants, and refugees who serve as resources in furthering our understanding of global and cultural issues; and

WHEREAS: Indeed, it is this multicultural spirit of discovery and diversity which makes Cambridge the wonderful, exciting, and unique place which it is; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby express its most sincere appreciation to all of the English as a Second Language teachers in Cambridge who are dedicated to providing high quality instruction to all seeking better ability in English; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby declare April 6, 1994 to be celebrated as English as a Second Language Day in the city.

Born, Dinehay, Sullivan, Toomey
Consent Order #2 R' M
Truontafillon Russell
Mayor Reeves re: Appreciation to all of the English as a Second Language teachers in Cambridge.

Order Adopted

In City Council,

March 28, 1994