AN ORDINANCE

In amendment to an ordinance formerly entitled: "The General Ordinances of the City of Cambridge" as revised in 1972 and now designated as "The Code of the City of Cambridge".

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cambridge as follows:

That Chapter Four entitled: "Animals" is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new Article IV entitled "Animals Constituting a Nuisance", containing sections 4-20 and 4-21 which shall read as follows:

Article IV. Animals Constituting a Nuisance.

Sec. 4-20. American Staffordshire Terrier, a/k/a American Pit Bull Terrier or Bull Terrier.

No owner, or person having the care of, any American Staffordshire Terrier, a/k/a American Pit Bull Terrier or Bull Terrier, shall permit it to be off his own premises, whether leashed or unleashed, unless it is wearing a muzzle.

In this section, the word "muzzle" means a device constructed of strong, soft material or a metal muzzle such as that used commercially with greyhounds. The muzzle must be made in a manner which will not cause injury to the dog or interfere with its vision or respiration, but must prevent it from biting any person or animal.

Any person who violates this section shall be subject to a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300) for each offense.

Sec. 4-21. Control of Dogs and Cats in Estrus Cycle.

If an animal control officer determines that a dog or cat in her estrus cycle, even when confined to the property of the owner or keeper, is attracting other dogs or cats to the area, which condition causes disturbances on, or damage to neighboring property or public areas, said officer may impound the dog or cat for the duration of the estrus cycle, releasing it thereafter to the owner or keeper, upon payment of pound fees, or the animal control officer may require the owner or keeper to place and keep such dog or cat, while in such cycle, in a keened or to remove it from the area so that the nuisance is abated.

Any person who violated this section shall be subject to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) for each offense.

Passed to a second reading at the City Council meeting held on April 2, 1984 and on or after April 23, 1984 the question comes on passing to be ordained.
