IN CITY COUNCIL

April 30, 1984

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

- WHEREAS: This City Council has received numerous requests from citizens who wish to be heard the same day that the matter is formally placed before the City Council for their consideration; and
- WHEREAS: These requests for hearings on the same day often result in a one-sided presentation of events without giving the department or the individual concerned the opportunity to present the other side of the subject to be discussed; now therefore be it
- ORDERED: That it is the policy of this City Council to formally schedule all requests for hearings for a subsequent meeting of the City Council, in order to provide for notification of all departments or individuals concerned in order to ensure that the Council is in possession of all the facts necessary to complete their deliberations and take action as required.
