Dear Members:

It has come to my attention that there is a possibility you might consider closing the Observatory Hill Branch Library for economy reasons.

I do want to tell you that it would be a great deprivation to many of the elderly citizens in the area who depend on it regularly.
Also, the two librarians have been most helpful in obtaining large-type books for those who have reading difficulties.
Most of us are unable to go farther to obtain books that we rely on to keep up our interests.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Theodore W. Cousins
