

City of Cambridge

42.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 26, 1993

VICE MAYOR CYR
COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: For over twenty years The Cambridge Committee of Elders served as a voice for Cambridge's large low-income elderly population, for it's homeless, and for racial, social, and economic justice everywhere; and

WHEREAS: In anticipation of their co-location in the new citywide senior center The Cambridge Committee of Elders and the Cambridge Council on Aging have merged; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has now assumed day to day responsibility for the operation of the 15 Pearl Street Senior Center and it's numerous and important programs; and

WHEREAS: This is a center which holds a special place in the hearts of this Council and the people of Cambridge as home to the city's only seven day breakfast and lunch programs, the first elderly food pantry, and the only senior center based dinner program as well as a host of social and human services programs; and

WHEREAS: In assuming responsibility for this program the City has committed itself to maintaining the Committee of Elder's spirit and commitment to serving the needs of those who need the most, first; to maintaining the 7 day programming; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report back to this City Council with a full report on the Merger, it's financing, and the city's plans, program and physical improvements for 15 Pearl Street; and be it further

ORDERED: That the Mayor invite the members of the Committee of Elders Board and the Council on Aging to an upcoming "Mayors Words" section of the council meeting in order to congratulate them on their commitment and courage.

In City Council April 26, 1993.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

42

Vice Mayor

Whereas: For over twenty years the Cambridge Committee of Elders served as a voice for Cambridge's large low-income elderly population, for its homeless, and for racial, social and economic justice everywhere, And

Whereas: In anticipation of their co-location in the new citywide senior center The Cambridge Committee of Elders and the Cambridge Council on Aging have merged. And

Whereas: The City of Cambridge has now assumed day to day responsibility for the operation of the 15 Pearl Street Senior center and its numerous and important programs, And

Whereas: This is a center which holds a special place in the hearts of this Council and the people of Cambridge as home to the city's only seven day breakfast and lunch programs, The first elderly food pantry and the only senior center based dinner program as well as a host of social and human services programs. And

Whereas: In assuming responsibility for this program the City has committed itself to maintaining the Committee of Elder's spirit and commitment to serving the needs of those who need the most, first; to maintaining the 7 day programming, and ... NOW THEREFORE BE IT

ORDERED That the City Manager report back to this council with a full report on the Merger, and the city's plans for 15 Pearl Street. And be it further its financing,

program & physical improvements

ordered that the Mayor write the members of the COE Board and the Council on Aging to an upcoming "Mayor's words" section of the Council meeting

In order to congratulate them on their commitment & courage.

Post-it brand fax transmittal memo 7671 # of pages 1

To	CAUCS / ADCE	From	ED CUE
Cc		Cc
Dept.		Phone #
Fax #	349-4287	Fax #

City of Cambridge

42.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 26, 1993

VICE MAYOR CYR

WHEREAS: For over twenty years The Cambridge Committee of Elders served as a voice for Cambridge's large low-income elderly population, for its homeless, and for racial, social, and economic justice everywhere; and

WHEREAS: In anticipation of their co-location in the new citywide senior center The Cambridge Committee of Elders and the Cambridge Council on Aging have merged; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has now assumed day to day responsibility for the operation of the 15 Pearl Street Senior Center and its numerous and important programs; and

WHEREAS: This is a center which holds a special place in the hearts of this Council and the people of Cambridge as home to the city's only seven day breakfast and lunch programs, the first elderly food pantry, and the only senior center based dinner program as well as a host of social and human services programs; and

WHEREAS: In assuming responsibility for this program the City has committed itself to maintaining the Committee of Elder's spirit and commitment to serving the needs of those who need the most, first; to maintaining the 7 day programming; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report back to this City Council with a full report on the Merger, its financing, and the city's plans, program and physical improvements for 15 Pearl Street; and be it further

ORDERED: That the Mayor invite the members of the Committee of Elders Board and the Council on Aging to an upcoming "Mayors Words" section of the council meeting in order to congratulate them on their commitment and courage.

Russell CONSENT ORDER #42

CM-98

Vice Mayor Cyr re: Merge of The Cambridge
Committee of Elders and the Cambridge
Council on Aging.

In City Council,

April 26, 1993

Order Adopted