Hi Kathy,

Here are my recommendations on what the Proclamation should address:

*It should be addressed to the Public Service Programs at Harvard for your services and involvement with the Cambridge residents, namely:

PBHA programs

- Best Buddies
- Pets as Therapy
- CHANCE
- Civics
- CODE
- The University Lutheran Shelter
- Environmental Action Committee
- ExperiMentors
- HARMONY
- HOP
- Hunger Action Committee
- Newtowne Court Afterschool program
- One-to-one
- PEN
- Peace Games
- North Cambridge Youth Enrichment
(Freshpond and the one-to-one program)
- SCAS
- Youth Recreation

HAND Program (House and Neighborhood Development)
CityStep

Harvard-Radcliffe Little People (HRLP)

The proclamation should thank those programs for the diversity of work they do for all populations of Cambridge, but especially children. It should also say something about the importance of coming together to appreciate this work in events such as this--volunteers serve year round without asking for more than seeing their clients make some progress. At this event, the uniqueness of Harvard's service to Cambridge will be shown in the program, presentations, so this is why we are asking the city council to make a proclamation on this day.
