6.080.010 Regulation of Vicious Dogs

A. Definitions. As used in this section, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings, unless the context shall indicate another or different meaning or intent:

(1) "Potentially Vicious Dog" means (a) any dog which, when unprovoked, in a vicious or terrorizing manner, approaches any person in an apparent attitude of attack upon the streets, sidewalks, or any public grounds or places; or (b) any dog with a known propensity, tendency or disposition to attack unprovoked, to cause injury or to otherwise endanger the safety of human beings or animals; or (c) any dog whose owner has been cited on three (3) separate occasions within the previous twelve (12) months for failing to restrain said dog; or (d) any dog not licensed according to city ordinance as heretofore provided in Article I, section 4-7 of this Chapter.

(2) "Vicious Dog" means (a) any dog having been previously found to be potentially vicious which, when unprovoked, in a vicious or terrorizing manner, approaches any person in an apparent attitude of attack upon the streets, sidewalks, or any public grounds or places; or (b) any dog which bites, inflicts injury, assaults or otherwise attacks a human being or domestic animal without provocation on public or private property; or (c) any dog owned or harbored primarily or in part for the purpose of dog fighting or any dog trained for dog fighting.

Notwithstanding the above definition of vicious dog, no dog may be declared vicious if any injury or damage is sustained by a person who, at the time such injury or damage was sustained, was committing a willful trespass or other tort upon premises occupied by the owner or keeper of the dog, or was teasing, tormenting, abusing or assaulting the dog or was committing or attempting to commit a crime.

No dog may be declared vicious if any injury or damage was sustained by a domestic animal which, at the time such injury or damage was sustained, was teasing, tormenting, abusing or assaulting the dog.

No dog may be declared vicious if the dog was protecting or defending a human being within the immediate vicinity of the dog from an unjustified attack or assault.

(3) "Enclosure" means a fence or structure of at least six feet (6') in height, forming or causing an enclosure to confine a vicious dog in conjunction with other measures which may be taken by the owner or keeper, such as tethering of the vicious dog. Such enclosure shall be securely constructed and locked and designed with secure sides, top and bottom so as to prevent the animal from escaping from the enclosure.

(4) "Impounded" means taken into the custody of the Animal Commission.

(5) "person" means a natural person or any legal entity, including but not limited to a corporation, firm, partnership or trust.

B. Determination that Dog is Vicious.

In the event that an agent or member of the Animal Commission has cause to believe that a dog is vicious, or upon the written complaint of a citizen made under oath and attesting to the same, the Director of the Animal Commission or his or her designee shall be empowered to convene a hearing for the purpose of determining whether or not the dog in question should be declared vicious. The Animal Commission shall, as is deemed necessary, conduct or cause to be conducted an investigation of the matter and shall notify the owner or keeper of the dog that a hearing will be held, at which time he or she may have the opportunity to present evidence why the dog should not be declared vicious. Service of notice shall be made by hand delivery or certified mail. The hearing shall be held promptly within no less than five (5) nor more than ten (10) days after service of notice upon the owner or keeper of the dog. The hearing shall be informal and open to the public.

After the hearing, the owner or keeper of the dog shall be notified in writing of the determination. If a determination is made that the dog is vicious, the owner or keeper shall comply with the registration provisions of this section, stated below, in accordance with a time schedule established by the Animal Commission, but in no case more than thirty (30) days subsequent to the date of determination. If the owner or keeper of the dog contests the determination, he or she may, within five (5) days of such determination, appeal the determination in the Third District Court of Eastern Middlesex County.

In the event that the Animal Commission has cause to believe that the dog in question is vicious and may pose a threat of serious harm to human beings or other domestic animals, the Commission may seize and impound the dog pending the aforesaid hearing and appeal. The owner or keeper of the dog shall be liable to the City of Cambridge for the costs and expenses of keeping such dog.

C. Determination that Dog is Potentially Vicious.

Any Animal Control Officer or other agent of the Animal Commission may make a determination without a hearing that a dog is potentially vicious, in accordance with the aforementioned definition of "Potentially Vicious Dog." Such a determination may be subject to the review of the full membership of the Animal Commission upon the petition of the owner or keeper of said dog.

D. Registration Requirements.

No vicious or potentially vicious dog shall be licensed by the City of Cambridge for any licensing period commencing after November 1, 1988 unless the owner or keeper of such vicious or potentially vicious dog shall meet the following requirements:

(1) The owner or keeper of a vicious or potentially vicious dog shall confine said dog inside his or her dwelling or inside a proper enclosure on his or her property. It shall be unlawful for an owner or keeper of a vicious or potentially vicious dog to permit said dog to be outside the proper enclosure or dwelling unless said dog is muzzled and restrained by a substantial chain or leash and under the control of a responsible person. The muzzle shall be made in a manner that will not cause injury to the dog or interfere with its vision or respiration but shall prevent it from biting any person or animal;

(2) The owner or keeper of a vicious dog shall, at his or her own expense, have the licensing number assigned to such dog, or other such number as the Animal Commission shall determine, tattooed upon such vicious dog by a licensed veterinarian or other person trained as a tattooist. The Animal Commission may, in its discretion, designate the particular location of said tattoo;

(3) The owner or keeper of a vicious dog shall present to the Animal Commission proof that the owner or keeper has procured liability insurance in the amount of at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), covering any damage or injury which may be caused by such vicious dog during the twelve (12) month period for which licensing is sought, which policy shall contain a provision requiring the City of Cambridge to be named as an additional insured for the sole purpose of the Animal Commission to be notified by the insurance company of any cancellation, termination or expiration of the liability insurance policy;

(4) The owner or keeper of a vicious or potentially vicious dog shall display a sign on his or her premises warning that there is such a dog on the premises. Said sign shall be visible and capable of being read from any adjacent public way.

(5) The owner or keeper of a vicious or potentially vicious dog shall sign statements attesting that: (a) in the case of a vicious dog, the owner or keeper of said dog shall maintain and not voluntarily cancel the liability insurance required by this section during the twelve (12) month period for which licensing is sought, unless the owner or keeper shall cease to own or keep the vicious dog prior to expiration of such license; (b) the owner or keeper shall, on or prior to the effective date of such license for which application is being made, have an enclosure for the vicious or potentially vicious dog on the property where said dog will be kept or maintained; (c) the owner or keeper shall notify the Animal Commission within twenty-four (24) hours if a vicious or potentially vicious dog is on the loose, is unconfined, has attacked another animal or has attacked a human being, or has died or has been sold or given away. If the vicious or potentially vicious dog has been sold or given away, the owner or keeper shall also provide the Animal Commission with the name, address, and telephone number of the new owner of said dog;

(6) The Animal Commission is hereby empowered to make whatever inquiry is deemed necessary to ensure compliance with the provisions of this section, and any agent of the Commission is hereby empowered to seize and impound any vicious or potentially vicious dog whose owner or keeper fails to comply with the provisions hereof. In the event that the owner or keeper of the dog refuses to surrender the animal to the Commission, the Commission Director may request a police officer to obtain a search warrant and to seize the dog upon execution of the warrant;

(7) The provisions of this section shall not apply to K-9 or other dogs owned by any police department or any law enforcement officer which are used in the performance of police work.

(8) The owner or keeper of a vicious dog shall pay, in addition to the standard dog license fee, a sum of ten dollars ($10.) for each vicious dog registered.

(D) Penalties for Violation.

(1) (a) Any vicious or potentially vicious dog which does not have a valid license in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, or (b) in the case of a vicious dog, whose owner or keeper does not secure the liability insurance coverage required in accordance with this section, or (c) any vicious or potentially vicious dog which shall be outside of the dwelling of the owner or keeper or outside of an enclosure and unmuzzled and/or otherwise unrestrained shall be confiscated by the Animal Commission and destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner after the expiration of a ten (10) day waiting period exclusive of Sundays and holidays. In addition, the owner or keeper shall pay a one hundred fifty dollar ($150.00) fine.

(2) If any vicious or potentially vicious dog shall, when unprovoked, kill, wound or worry or assist in killing or wounding any domestic animal, the owner or keeper of said dog shall pay a one hundred fifty dollar ($150.00) fine and the Animal Commission is empowered to confiscate and, after the expiration of a ten (10) day waiting period, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, shall destroy said dog. For each subsequent violation the owner or keeper of said dog shall pay a fine of three hundred dollars ($300.00).

(3) If any vicious or potentially vicious dog shall, when unprovoked, attack, assault, wound, bite or otherwise injure or kill a human being, the owner or keeper shall pay a three hundred dollar ($300.00) fine and the Animal Commission is empowered to confiscate and, after the expiration of a ten (10) day waiting period, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, shall destroy said dog. For each and any subsequent violation, said owner or keeper shall pay a fine of three hundred dollars ($300.00).

(4) No person shall be charged under subsections (1), (2) or (3) above unless the dog, prior to the offense alleged, shall have been declared vicious or potentially vicious pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(5) The Animal Commission shall provide notice of the impoundment and/or pending destruction of a vicious or potentially vicious dog to the registered owner or keeper of said dog. Service of notice shall be made by hand delivery or certified mail within five (5) days next following the date of impoundment.

(6) If the owner or keeper of a dog impounded for an alleged violation of this section shall believe that there has not been a violation of this section, such owner or keeper may petition a court of competent jurisdiction praying that the dog not be destroyed. The impounded dog shall not be destroyed pending resolution of such owner's or keeper's petition. The dog shall remain impounded pending a hearing on the petition and any subsequent appeal.
