COUNCILLOR WOLF

WHEREAS: The Cambridge municipal golf course, the Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr./Fresh Pond Golf Course, is an important recreational resource which is supposed to be accessible to the public on an equitable basis; and

WHEREAS: It has come to the attention of the City Council that use of the gold course, particularly in "prime time" on weekends and holidays when working people can play, is very difficult, if not impossible, to achieve; and

WHEREAS: The difficulty of access, is said to stem from a priority for persons who are part of what is now called "The Social Club" and was until recently called "The Men's Inner Club" and then "The Inner Club;" and

WHEREAS: The policies for access to public facilities must be totally fair and equitable and non-discriminatory; and

WHEREAS: Although management of the golf course is said to have improved, access issues still remain; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report back to the City Council within a week exactly what the policies and procedures, written or in practice, are with regard to the use of the municipal golf course; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager provide to the City Council information with regard to "The Social Club," along with any other groups that get exceptional priority; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to provide information on golf course use and recommendations, such as an equal access committee, for providing equitable access to the golf course in the future; and be it further ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to inform the City Council as to how policies and procedures for the use of the golf course are developed.

In City Council March 22, 1993.
Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
