

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE

MASSACHUSETTS 02139 • 617-876-6800

Barbara Ackermann
Mayor

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS:-

Black Citizens have for more than three hundred years contributed continuously to the progress and history of this country; and

WHEREAS:-

Black Citizens are in the process of presenting the missing pages of history that include their artistic, cultural and inventive genius; and

WHEREAS:-

Black Citizens of Cambridge have contributed widely to to the cultural and community life of this city; now therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That I, Barbara Ackermann, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby proclaim the period of February 11-17, 1973 as

BLACK HISTORY WEEK IN CAMBRIDGE

And all citizens of Cambridge are urged through their churches, museums, schools, libraries, media and public forums to seek a wider knowledge of the contributions that the Black ~~man~~ ^{People} has made to this United States.

BARBARA ACKERMANN, MAYOR

43a

Resolution-Black History Week in Cambridge

In City Council,

Feb. 5, 1973