That the City Manager & Board of Assessors be requested to "assess and bill" the Harvard land properties, and to make known by advertising in the local newspapers to the citizens of Cambridge, especially in the Harvard Crimson, that Harvard College in Cambridge refuses to pay the assessed tax.

Further that the Cambridge License Commission, in the name of the people of Cambridge revoke all privileges granted Harvard such as liquor licenses, etc.

and further that Harvard College not be considered as part of Cambridge, in the event that it fails to cooperate in paying its share of the "volunteer assessors & plan tax".
