CITY * OF * CAMBRIDGE.

In Board of Aldermen,

May 7. 1895.

ORDERED,

That in addition to the net sum of Sixteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars, ($16500.00) provided for in the annual budget for the current year, for the purpose of Street watering, the further sum of Ten Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($10500.00) be and hereby is appropriated, making a total appropriation of Twenty-seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($27500.00), for said purpose. Said further sum to be met from any unappropriated revenue received into the City Treasury during this financial year.

The order recently adopted, providing for a special tax of one cent per linear foot of frontage, for street watering, is hereby repealed.

The Superintendent of Streets is hereby authorized to water all the streets of the city, accepted and unaccepted, and to use his discretion as to the watering of places and lanes.

The Committee on Ordinances is hereby requested to report an ordinance in conformity with this order.
