OFFICE OF THE CITY ENGINEER,
CITY HALL.

Cambridge May 22nd 1888

To the Hon the Mayor & Aldermen
Gentlemen

Certain Numbers having been called for on Bigelow Street which have been wrongfully taken, and numbers enough not having been originally provided the undersigned would respectfully suggest that the matter of a partial or whole renumbering of the said Street be referred to the Engineering or such other Committee as your Hon Body may determine upon. ~~may~~^{to} consider the same and report such action as they may think best for your subsequent action.

Very respectfully

W. S. Babson City Engineer

The undersigned would also report an encroachment on the Corner of Green and Brookline Streets. Said encroachment consisting of a platform extending into Brookline Street and the building itself into Green Street

Very truly
