

City of Cambridge

Mayor Vellucci

5.

In City Council,
October 18, 1971.

WHEREAS:-

Alexander L. MacPhail, the local representative of the Cambridge Record American, during the month of September authored a series of articles on the drug problem facing the City of Cambridge, which was informative and alerted the citizenry of the University City to the great inroads made by the drug purveyors within our city, and

WHEREAS:-

This series of articles was of great assistance to public officials of the City of Cambridge because of the factual manner in which they were presented as a result of his close association with the members of the Cambridge Police Department who are actively engaged in an attempt to curb the rising traffic situation within our city, and

WHEREAS:-

This series of articles by Alexander L. MacPhail impressed on our citizenry and public officials the need for further efforts to stem the tide of drug addiction within our city, and provided those persons who are addicted with an alternative by indicating the many agencies which are available for treatment and would hopefully provide a cure, and

WHEREAS:-

Alexander L. MacPhail, by his in depth reporting and deep analysis of this problem has performed a great public service which is consistent with the highest ideals of journalism, therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That this City Council go on record congratulating Alexander L. MacPhail and the Cambridge Edition of the Record American for their outstanding contribution to the civic life of the City of Cambridge.
