COUNCILLOR REEVES
VICE MAYOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DAVIS
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: The fifteen of January, 1997, would have been the sixty-eighth Birthday of the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will commemorate the life and ongoing legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. at an annual breakfast on Saturday, January 18, 1997 at the Cambridge Center Marriott; and

WHEREAS: Martin Luther King, Jr. loved justice, mercy and walked quietly with his God. He proved that one man could make a difference -- that being a drum major for justice was/is indeed a worthy calling -- especially when the entire nation needed to hear the sound of each drum beat; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge is a city which in its best moments strives to hear the cries of the down-trodden, the homeless, the poor, the hungry, those without medical care, those who are new immigrants and have many pressing needs; and

WHEREAS: We, as a City, join the Cambridge Branch NAACP in taking the moment of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday to reflect upon our role in today's society. Are we accomplishing the work which will lead to equality and justice for all? Are we working daily to assure that all American children will have an education equal to the demands of the 21st century; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the 1997 Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Observance in the City of Cambridge be a celebration of individual and community commitment to human dignity as personified by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
