MAYOR WOLF

WHEREAS: Once again Cambridge has proven victorious in our annual softball game against our rivals to the north -- Somerville -- defeating them on their on home field, Trum Field; and

WHEREAS: The superior team field included a cross-section of City employees ranging from department heads to rank and file, all determined to once again bring honor to their City and beat Somerville; and

WHEREAS: More important than just playing softball on a Wednesday night, both Cambridge and Somerville play for a charity each year, raising several hundred dollars, and this year's beneficiary was the CASPAR shelter; and

WHEREAS: In this tenth annual game, Cambridge has won an impressive seven times even without the preseason conditioning that Somerville often tries to use without success; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council congratulates the players and staff of the 1991 "Mayor Wolf and Friends" team; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and is hereby requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to Louis DePasquale, coach of the 1991 "Mayor Wolf and Friends".
