WHEREAS: The Multicultural Arts Center and the GNE Productions will present the 11th Annual "A Joyful Noise" concert, an Annual Cambridge Tribute to the Legacy of Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on Sunday, January 17, 1998; at 7:00 p.m. in Sanders Theater at Harvard University; and

WHEREAS: This year's performance will include three hours of soloists, ensembles and choirs, emceed by co-producers and performers Patricia Dance and Donnell Patterson of GNE Productions; and

WHEREAS: The gospel concert will feature highlights from the past decade including a set of moving spirituals performed by Cambridge's own living treasure, Ruth Hamilton, the enthusiastic, intergenerational Cambridge Community Chorus, solos by Ida Kamrara, the rhythms of jazz saxophonist Bobby Tynes, the Silverlinings, St. Paul A.M.E.'s Voices of Woman Victorious, the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church Choir, Praise, the Patterson Chorale and the Greater Boston Community Choir; and

WHEREAS: Yet again "A Joyful Noise" will provide a moving tribute to Dr. King, one of the "giants" of the twentieth century in intellect, heart and spirit; and yet again we will remember his words, "injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere;" and

WHEREAS: This exciting performance and celebration is made possible with support from Harvard's Office of Community Affairs, Cambridge Community Television (CCTV), the Cambridge Community Foundation, the City of Cambridge and the Massachusetts Cultural Council; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record thanking the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center and GNE Productions and Gregory Jackson, the concert's first producer, for helping freedom to ring in Cambridge.
