VICE MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: It is of great concern to the people of this city and the City Council that all people in our society have the opportunity to live their lives to the fullest of their desires and abilities; and
- WHEREAS: In October of 1990, the National Center for Health Statistics revealed that life expectancy for African Americans has now declined for the fourth straight year; and
- WHEREAS: The average African American male dies before collecting his first Social Security check; and
- WHEREAS: The main contributor to this terrible statistic is HIV infection, followed by homicide and motor vehicle accidents, respiratory disease, and diabetes; and
- WHEREAS: On Saturday, March 2, 1991, at the Martin Luther King School in Cambridge, the Concerned Black Men of Cambridge presented a forum entitled, "Black Men: Dying Young in the Inner City;" and
- WHEREAS: This forum featured Keynote Speaker, Cambridge resident, the Honorable Charles Spurlock Roxbury District Court, and panelists Mark Gray of Cambridge Cares About Aids, the Honorable Marie Jackson-Thompson, and Kevin DeLoach, Cambridge Rindge and Latin School student and activist, and was moderated by Karen Holmes of WCVB-TV - Channel 5; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council extend its congratulations and support to the Concerned Black Men of Cambridge and to all those distinguished and dedicated people who participated in bringing this important forum to our city.

In City Council March 4, 1991.
