Dear Councillors:

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to all the members of the Cambridge City Council for their very kind expression of sympathy to me upon the death of my husband, Anthony J. DeVito. My children and I appreciate their thoughtful remembrance.

Anthony was born, raised and educated in Cambridge, and with the exception of a few years prior to and during World War II, he had always lived here. He had lived in North Cambridge for the last fifty years, and still had ties to East Cambridge where he had lived previously and where many members of his family still reside. Anthony would often go to Harvard Square to shop or to spend time at the libraries. He served the city of Cambridge on the zoning board while he was still teaching at Boston University. He had a great love for the city of Cambridge.

Sincerely,

Margaret E. DeVito
