

To His Honour the Mayor and Board of Aldermen.

The undersigned, owners of Real Estate, situated on that part of Green Street leading from Bay to Putnam, would humbly pray that Your Hon. Body will take into consideration, the propriety of accepting the above part of said Street, under the usual form as provided for. They would also respectfully remind Your Hon. Body, that in the Summer of 1855 under the authority of the City Government, the above mentioned part of Green Street was thoroughly graded and put in perfect order and charged to the abutters, who then supposed the Street would be immediately accepted. All of which we humbly submit to the favourable consideration of Your Honourable Body.
