IN CITY COUNCIL

January 21, 1985

MAYOR RUSSELL

- WHEREAS: Friends and family of Florence and Thomas Gibbons, otherwise known as Flossie and Buddy, will be gathering on Saturday, January 26, 1985 to celebrate the happy couple's 30th Wedding Anniversary; and
- WHEREAS: Thomas Gibbons and the former Florence Murphy were wed on February 13, 1955 at St. John's Church in Cambridge under the watchful eye of Best Man William Paine and Maid of Honor Jean Murphy Riley; and
- WHEREAS: Flossie is easily recognized from her long jogging stints through the streets of North Cambridge or from her position as school crossing guard for which she was recently honored for her outstanding work; and
- WHEREAS: Buddy is well known in the City of Cambridge as he has been with the Commonwealth Gas Company for more than 35 years and because of his sharp wit and expert storytelling has often been called on to act as Master of Ceremonies for many ComGas functions; and
- WHEREAS: Flossie and Buddy are also well known to local politicians for the eleven votes they have brought into the world in the form of their children Mary, Thomas, Michael, Joseph, Edward, Anne, Janet, Francis, Patrick, John, and Daniel not to mention grandson Philip; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council do hereby officially congratulate Flossie and Buddy Gibbons on the occasion of their 30th Wedding Anniversary, express its heartfelt desire for many more happy anniversaries in the future, and extend to the entire Gibbons family its sincerest wish for continued happiness and good health.
