MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: Longevity is the visible expression of God's in-depth love, mercy and grace; and

WHEREAS: November 13, 1903 marked the genesis of the noteworthy and fulfilling life of Dorothy Gatherwright, a woman of compassion with a keen sensitivity to the needs and well-being of others; and

WHEREAS: Dorothy Gatherwright's innate talents and abilities were illuminated through lifelong dedication and commitment to Massachusetts Avenue Baptist Church where she is presently the eldest and longest serving member; and

WHEREAS: While utilizing her skills in an exemplary manner as Church organist, Sunday School pianist and piano instructor, Dorothy Gatherwright has had a positive, formative influence on the development and future direction of young lives; and

WHEREAS: Interspersed in the nine decades of Dorothy Gatherwright's extended life the world has experienced five global conflicts, the advent of electronic religious services, moon walks, surrogate mothers, jet planes, high powered motor cars and a nucleus of other seemingly miraculous events; and

WHEREAS: Dorothy Gatherwright in exercising her willing spirit and faithfulness to her church has served in the capacity of parishioner, confidante and friend to a cadre of celebrated ministers; and

WHEREAS: The productive fruits of her labor is evidenced and complimented by the love, caring and pride of her immediate family, extended family, and friends; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby extend its sincere congratulations and applaud the proficient life of Dorothy Gatherwright, wishing her an extended life of good health and happiness.
