

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

In Board of Aldermen, May 16th, 1893.

Whereas: It is adjudged by the Board that the public necessity and convenience require that Mount Pleasant Street should be extended and laid out from its present southerly terminus, southerly about twenty-five (25) feet, and that for the purpose of such extension, a certain parcel of private land should be taken and laid out as a public street and a part of Mount Pleasant Street,

It is therefore

Ordered, that

That a parcel of land, forty (40) feet in width between the southerly terminus of Mount Pleasant Street, as heretofore laid out, and a point twenty-five (25) feet southerly, included between the blue lines, and also indicated by blue coloring, as shown upon the original acceptance plan of said ~~plan of said~~ Mount Pleasant Street, drawn by Arthur Hodges, dated May 29, 1877, and now before this Board, be and hereby is taken for public use, and laid out as a public street, and part of said Mount Pleasant Street, and the grade thereof established as shown by the red lines on the profile of said street, which is included in, and is a part of said plan.

Ordered,

That no damages be allowed for the land so taken as aforesaid, ~~four~~ of the petitioners for this extension being owners of the land taken, and they agree in the petition to pay all attendant expenses.
