Dear Joe,

As you know, representatives of Harvard have been asked to attend a public hearing on Monday evening at 6:00 p.m. to discuss Harvard's in-lieu of tax payments to Cambridge.

A few weeks ago, in response to another City Council request, we forwarded a letter regarding Harvard's admissions and financial aid policies as they affect local applicants. Since some of the Councillors still have unanswered questions about admissions and financial aid, I have asked Jim Miller, Harvard's Director of Financial Aid, to accompany me to personally address those questions raised by Council members. Would it be possible to allocate the first few minutes of our designated hearing time for this purpose?

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
