SOMERVILLE-
CAMBRIDGE
ELDER
SERVICES

April 30, 2001

The Honorable Timothy J. Toomey
State House - Room 39
Boston, MA 02133

Dear Representative Toomey:

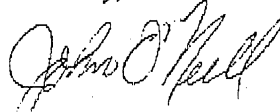

In honor of Older Americans Month, Somerville-Cambridge Elder Services (SCES) will be hosting ElderFair. This event will be held on Saturday, May 19, 2001 from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Charles G. Harrington School at 850 Cambridge Street in Cambridge. Please join us for this fun-filled, free festival for the senior citizens of our community. Last year, over 200 elders joined us for ElderFair, and we expect many more this year.

The day will feature a free picnic lunch, door prizes and raffles, entertainment, health information and screenings, and much more. We are working closely with organizations such as the Councils on Aging, and other community partners, to provide this very special day for the elderly in our community.

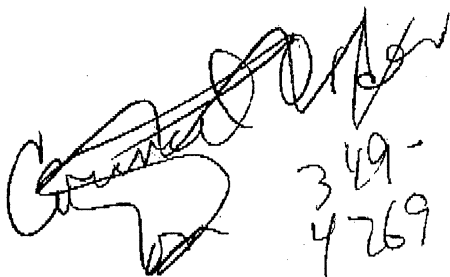

Each year SCES touches the lives of over 5,000 elders through programs such as home-delivered and congregate meals, home care, information and referral, protective services, money management, and memory disorder services. ElderFair offers a wonderful opportunity for older people to learn more about these vital services.

To R.S.V.P., please call Lisa Spadaro at (617) 628-2601, extension 3119.

Sincerely,

John O'Neill
