

February 21, 1974

To: Representatives of Housing Rehabilitation-Conservation
Sub-Committee of the City Council Committee on Housing and Land Development

Councillor Sandra Graham, Chairwoman

The Housing Rehabilitation-Conservation Subcommittee met last Thursday evening to discuss the need for a comprehensive housing rehabilitation-conservation program for Cambridge.

Subcommittees were established to discuss and prepare proposals for various program elements.

The Subcommittees on Organization and Role of City Departments and Cambridge Housing Authority will meet on Tuesday, February 26, at 11:00 A.M. in the Council Chambers to discuss and prepare recommendations for these program elements.

Persons requested by the Chairwoman to serve on the Housing Rehabilitation-Conservation Committee and specifically to attend a meeting of the Organization and City Departments Program Subcommittees are as follows:

City Manager's Office : James Farrell
Budget Office : Robert LeBlanc
Cambridge Redevelopment Authority : Gordon Gottsche
City Clerk's Office : Joseph Connarton
Assessing Department : Rudolph Russo
Rent Control : Fred Cohn and Ken Griffin
Housing Inspection : Bernie Hill
Building Department : Charles Sprague
Planning Department : Mike Rosenberg
Cambridge Housing Authority : Mary Castriotta
Planning Board : Arthur Parris
Home Owner's Rehab : Mel Gadd
Cambridge Historical Commission : Polly Rettig

City Council representatives on the Housing Rehabilitation and Conservation Subcommittee include Councillors Sandra Graham, Barbara Ackermann and David Wylie.

We would appreciate your participation in the next meeting on Tuesday, February 26, 1974 at 11:00 A.M. in the Council Chambers.

57