

City of Cambridge

35.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 22, 1995

COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: Bike To Work Week has provided the general public an opportunity to consider the advantage of bicycling in crowded cities, for instance, freedom from traffic jams and freedom from the sometimes impossible task of finding a parking space; and

WHEREAS: The plan for the revitalized Central Square and the plan for the resurfacing of Huron Avenue include bike lanes which will make these busy streets safe territory for cyclists and will furthermore hopefully set an example for similar accommodations for cyclists on other roads; and

WHEREAS: Warning tickets currently being issued by the Cambridge Police are a step in the right direction, and

WHEREAS: Identifying repeat offenders is difficult without some kind of positive identification; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report to the City Council about the feasibility of reinstating the requirement that Cambridge residents license bicycles kept in Cambridge (currently registration is optional and few residents are aware of the procedure) and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager report when and for what reason this requirement, which could raise substantial funds for the city if the fee currently $.25 were increased for adults was discontinued.

In City Council May 22, 1995
Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;
ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury
D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk

City of Cambridge

35.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 22, 1995

COUNCILLOR BORN

WHEREAS: Bike To Work Week has provided the general public an opportunity to consider the advantage of bicycling in crowded cities, for instance, freedom from traffic jams and freedom from the sometimes impossible task of finding a parking space; and

WHEREAS: The plan for the revitalized Central Square and the plan for the resurfacing of Huron Avenue include bike lanes which will make these busy streets safe territory for cyclists and will furthermore hopefully set an example for similar accommodations for cyclists on other roads; and

WHEREAS: Warning tickets currently being issued by the Cambridge Police are a step in the right direction, and

WHEREAS: Identifying repeat offenders is difficult without some kind of positive identification; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report to the City Council about the feasibility of reinstating the requirement that Cambridge residents license bicycles kept in Cambridge (currently registration is optional and few residents are aware of the procedure) and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager report when and for what reason this requirement, which could raise substantial funds for the city if the fee currently $.25 were increased for adults was discontinued.

Gallucci Russell
Consent Order #35 CM-220

Councillor Born re: reinstating the requirement of Cambridge residents to license bicycles kept in Cambridge.

In City Council May 22, 1995

Order adopted

Y2