

To whom it may concern:

The kids which live in the Harvard sq. area are getting quite upset about you kicking out the peddlers. They^{should} have just as much right to sell their things as the commercial stores!!! Harvard sq. is cheerful with them!! Harvard sq. is now boring! I myself go to Harvard sq. at LEAST 3 or 4 times a week & without peddlers its not as fun to look at (Harvard sq.) I buy from both commercial est. & peddlars, more though from commercial est. But peddlars are great to look at. Harvard sq. ~~is~~ just wouldn't be the same without them.

Look at Europe - all the peddlars there - they don't kick them out, so why? the commercial stores get quite alot more business than the peddlars, (still)! Also commercial stores get quite alot more business! Everyones got to make a living? Many people I'm sure agree with me!!

+ I hope you change your mind ~~ore~~, you won't see me very often!!!
