Dear Sir:-

I have this day examined Mr. Wm. H. H. Howe, of No. 6 Ashton Place, Cambridge, a policeman in your department. Owing to his bad hearing, and sight, and injuries received to his head received some four years ago, ruptured muscle in his leg, frequent headaches, and rheumatism from which he is a great sufferer, I would suggest that you recommend him to be retired.

Respectfully,

William G. Brousseau M.D.

City Physician.

P.S. I have been informed by Dr George W Tuttle that Mr Howe is suffering from an Enlarged prostate gland. D.G.H.
