7.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 2, 1990

Mayor Wolf

- WHEREAS: Success is not only a measure of academic ability or a high grade point average, but doing the best one can do; and
- WHEREAS: CRLS with its thousands of students from all over the world and from the entire spectrum of socio-economic groupings acknowledges that achievement stems from many sources and many types of people; and
- WHEREAS: Last year several Academic Focus Luncheons were held to honor those who overcame physical, cultural, language, or socio-economic barriers and this tradition will continue in 1990 with a luncheon this Friday, March 30, when twenty-five students will be honored for achievement "above and beyond the call of duty"; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED: This this City Council acknowledge the honorees of this years Academic Focus Luncheon for overcoming various challenges with consideration for others and for the contribution they have made to make Cambridge Rindge and Latin School a better place; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk is hereby requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to Dr. Elsa Wasserman on behalf of all the students of CRLS and as a token of appreciation this City Council has for the continued efforts of students, teachers, and administrators to make CRLS one of the truly outstanding high schools in the United States.

In City Council April 2, 1990.
Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
