WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has always been supportive of the development of new food venues within our borders, which will offer our residents and visitors a wide sample of dining possibilities; and

WHEREAS: It has come to the attention of the City that BOSTON CHICKEN, located in the Porter Square Exchange building, will celebrating its Grand Re-Opening on February 5, 1995; and

WHEREAS: BOSTON CHICKEN has brought to the City of Cambridge and to the Greater Boston area a healthy alternative to the traditional "fast food" - rotisserie chicken - which is ready to go in minutes, and more importantly, tastes good; and

WHEREAS: BOSTON CHICKEN lures the prospective customer with its wide array of hot chicken dinners and side orders of vegetables and other delights, which are as close to home cooking as one can get in ten minutes or less; and

WHEREAS: BOSTON CHICKEN has rapidly become one of the most successful of several new business that have helped to make Porter Square one of the City's most successful shopping centers; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby congratulate BOSTON CHICKEN on its extremely successful operation and Grand Re-Opening in Porter Square, and wish them the greatest of success in this and all their future endeavors.
