er takes on new 'Glory'

It is flattering that people know my name and my character," Braugher said of his Emmy Award-winning role.

He said he hasn't really had a chance to return to the show he called home for five years, which he left because of family and work commitments, but he knows some things mentary. In the film, which starred Matthew Broderick, he played a member of the regiment.

"'Glory' was made very much within the Hollywood restrictions," said Braugher, ticking off the characters: one older guy, one younger guy, one scared guy. With this pro-demand printing" guru.

Catching up with Ben

If you aren't lucky enough to be at the Westin Hotel tonight to see actor Ben Affleck be honored with his mom, Chris, and brother, Casey, you can tune in to see an interview with Affleck by Globe film critic Jay Carr at 8:30 p.m. on New England Cable News. The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children is recognizing Chris Affleck and WBZ anchor Jack Williams for their work with families and children. Williams founded "Wednesday's Child," a Channel 4 news segment that for more than 15 years has promoted the adoption of children in the state's foster care system. Chris Affleck worked with children for 20 years, as a teacher and founder of a Head Start program in Cambridge.

Raising funds For the Love of Life!

Patrick Francis Murphy, the community activist and founder of For the Love of Life! who died last month from complications related to AIDS, will be remembered at a fund-raising auction tomorrow at the World Trade Center. Honorary chairmen Marjorie Clapprood and husband Chris Spinazzola will be joined by Channel 7 anchor Sean Hennessey and WJMN-FM's Fast Freddie, among others. For the Love of Life! grants wishes to those living with HIV/AIDS. . . . Leo R. Breitman, chairman and CEO of Fleet National Bank-Massachusetts, will receive the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award at the Sheraton Boston Hotel tonight. The award is given to individuals who show a commitment to constitutional ideals.

Jacobson's Latino connection

Boston party/wedding planner Bobbe Jacobson has landed the job of handling the anniversary party for the film network on Nov. 21. Jacob-
