❖CITY❖OF❖CAMBRIDGE.❖

In Board of Aldermen,

Feb. 24 1886

Ordered,

Whereas,

By an order of the Board of Aldermen, adopted Sept. 29. 1885, an assessment in the sum of $92.63, was laid upon lands of Heirs of William Fisk and James C. Fisk, - for Edge-stones, - and it appears that an error of 1.00 was made in the computation, - the correct sum which should have been assessed, being $91.63. -

it is

Ordered,

That from the assessment for Edge-stones, amounting to $92.63, heretofore laid upon lands of Heirs of William Fisk and James C. Fisk, - the sum of one dollar, ($1.00) be and hereby is abated, - and the City Treasurer is hereby relieved from the collection of so much of the assessment aforesaid as is covered by the amount of such abatement, - to wit the sum of one dollar.

Attest: Justin A. Jacobs.

City Clerk.

Owen 92^A 2

abating the sum of $2.00
from assessment of $92.63 upon heirs of W. Fisk and
