Mayor's Office

Dear Jubi Headley:

I am writing to enlist the support of the Mayor's office once again this year in making an official proclamation of CityStep Days in Cambridge. CityStep is celebrating its thirteenth year as an organization that involves over 150 Harvard-Radcliffe undergraduates, and over 100 fifth and sixth grade Cambridge public school students. Our unique, and student-run organization works in conjunction with these talented CityStep kids in a creative dance theatre program that addresses questions of multiculturalism, self-image, cooperation, and problem solving. After a year-long commitment, this learning experience is expressed in a dance-theatre performance conceived, designed, and choreographed by students. These efforts are showcased to around three thousand members of the community who attend the two days of performances in April.

Enclosed is an updated version of last year's proclamation for your convenience. We welcome you to join us in the celebration of achievement and dedication of CityStep's kids:

CityStep
proudly presents its 13th annual production

"Pump Up the Volume: DANCE!"
Sanders Theater
Friday, April 12 7:00 p.m.
Saturday, April 13 2:00 p.m., 7:00 p.m.

Come feel the energy of Cambridge fifth and sixth graders and their Harvard-Radcliffe teachers as they perform an originally conceived, designed and choreographed production, with the traditional CityStep spirit. Tickets will be sold at the Sanders Theater Box Office.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at 617-493-5778. Thank you for your time and consideration, in addition to your continued support of CityStep!

Sincerely,

Shanna R. Cox
