

City of Cambridge

1.

IN CITY COUNCIL
January 14, 1991

COUNCILLOR MYERS

- WHEREAS: The City is currently pursuing new efforts in the area of employment and training of City residents; and
- WHEREAS: It would be beneficial to these efforts if the City were able to offer incentives to businesses to participate in such efforts as training programs, and the hiring of City residents; and
- WHEREAS: One possible approach would be to offer businesses who provide training to Cambridge residents or hire a certain percentage of Cambridge residents tax credits; and
- WHEREAS: This is only one approach and there are surely many others; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to explore what possibilities exist for the City to provide incentives to local employers to hire and train local residents; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to confer with the Community Development Department to encourage that department to explore what options, including tax credits and others that would be available to the City; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to provide this City Council with a report based on the results of these explorations and include a section which would entail recommendations to the City Council.

In City Council January 14, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

Page

Whereas the city is currently pursuing new efforts in the area of employment and training of city residents;

Whereas it would be beneficial to these efforts if the city were able to offer incentives to businesses to participate in such efforts as training programs, and the hiring of city residents,

Whereas one possible approach would be to offer businesses who provide training to Cambridge residents or hire a certain percentage of Cambridge residents tax credits;

Whereas this is only one approach and there are surely many others;

Therefore be it resolved that the City Manager bein and is hereby requested to explore what possibilities exist for the city to provide incentives to local employers to hire and train local residents;

And be it further resolved that City Manager confer with the Community Development Department to encourage that department to explore what options, including tax credits and others that would be available to the city;

And be it further resolved that City Manager provide the city council with a report based on the results of these explorations and include a section which would entail recommendations to the City Council;

City of Cambridge

1.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 14, 1991

COUNCILLOR MYERS

- WHEREAS: The City is currently pursuing new efforts in the area of employment and training of City residents; and
- WHEREAS: It would be beneficial to these efforts if the City were able to offer incentives to businesses to participate in such efforts as training programs, and the hiring of City residents; and
- WHEREAS: One possible approach would be to offer businesses who provide training to Cambridge residents or hire a certain percentage of Cambridge residents tax credits; and
- WHEREAS: This is only one approach and there are surely many others; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to explore what possibilities exist for the City to provide incentives to local employers to hire and train local residents; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to confer with the Community Development Department to encourage that department to explore what options, including tax credits and others that would be available to the City; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to provide this City Council with a report based on the results of these explorations and include a section which would entail recommendations to the City Council.

JAN. 14 1991

City Council

Adopted by the affirmative vote

of 9 members

Joseph E. Conner

City Clerk

Order #1

F-111

Councillor Myers re: incentives to local employers to hire Cambridge residents.

In City Council,

January 14, 1991

Order adopted