WHEREAS: Sister Lorraine McLaughlin is celebrating her 50th anniversary as a Sister of Saint Joseph; and

WHEREAS: She's an original Charlestown "Townie," the youngest of seven children of Fires Captain Michael and his wife, Annie. Four of her five brothers, Johnnie, Willie, Francis, Al and Teddy were also Boston firefighters. She has one sister, Sis. They all grew up in the Bunker Hill neighborhood; and

WHEREAS: Sister Lorraine attended Saint Mary's and Cathedral High School under the tutelage of the Sisters of Saint Joseph, and although a talented, energetic athlete, she gave up her scholarship to Boston University's Sargent College to enter the convent; and

WHEREAS: As a C.S.J., Sister began her career as a first grade teacher, serving for nine very happy, happy years (from 1950-1959) as Saint Joseph's in Quincy. Then she spent one year at Saint Mary's in Brookline before making the huge jump from first grade to twelfth grade at Immaculate Conception in Revere; and

WHEREAS: From 1960-1968, Sister taught seniors at Immaculate Conception. She coached the girls' basketball team and won many championships; and

WHEREAS: The next major change was from Sister Bertrand to Sister Lorraine, from the traditional habit to the modified habit, and from classroom teacher to the building principal at Marian High School in Framingham; and

WHEREAS: The popular principal moved from suburbia to the inner city and for the past fifteen years has been in administration at North Cambridge Catholic High School; and

WHEREAS: Sister Lorraine is described by her students as someone who "really cares about us... she is firm and always fair...she loves us and is concerned about all people, of all cultures and all colors;" now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the entire City Council go on record as congratulating Sister Lorraine McLaughlin for her 50 years of dedicated service and daily example, serving as an inspiration to fortunate students under her tutelage.
