Dear Representative:

September 22, 2000, has been declared POW-MIA RECOGNITION DAY by Congress. There will be appropriate observances held throughout the country at each state capital at noon on that day.

The Massachusetts Chapter of the National League of Families of American prisoners and missing in southeast Asia will conduct a ceremony at noon on that day at Boston City Hall Plaza.

All branches of the military and veterans organizations will be participating as well as public safety groups, elected officials, etc. At the conclusion of the ceremony there will be a 12 hour vigil with the names of the 2040 MIAS being read.

It is very comforting for the families of the missing men to know that their elected officials do care about our loved ones, a good turnout of our elected officials lets the Vietnamese know that Americans do care about our missing men.

We would also appreciate your encouraging the members of the House to attend the RECOGNITION DAY'S events. If you would make the House of Representatives aware by some mention of the day in session we would deeply appreciate it.

We would be honored to have you participate in the program for the ceremony, if possible.

I look forward to hearing from you in regards to this matter.

Sincerely,

Maureen A. Dunn, wife
Commander Joseph P. Dunn, MIA,
