IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor William H. Walsh
Councillor Sheila Russell

February 6, 1989

WHEREAS: When good faith efforts to create affordable housing units in Cambridge are forced to stop due to a bureaucratic impasse between two city agencies, it is incumbent upon the City Council to involve itself, to the appropriate degree, and do what it can to facilitate the working out of an effective solution; and

WHEREAS: Presently, the Putnam Western Cooperative Corporation, owner of a 14 unit rent-controlled property at 201-215 Putnam Avenue, finds itself in such an impasse between the Cambridge Rent Control Board and the Department of Community Development; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That His Honor, the Mayor, offer to mediate this dispute between the city agencies and the property's owner in an effort to provide additional units of affordable housing.
