To the City Council:

I protest the City Council putting up a banner reading "NO WAR." As far as I can recall, when they ran for office no candidate for City Council ran a campaign that included their ideas about U.S. foreign policy, nor should they. Not one single vote was cast for them based on foreign policy issues. Therefore they have no right to seize the power of their pulpit to represent me, or any other Cambridge resident, regarding foreign policy.

Sad, horrific and destructive as war is, I feel proud of America for going to war to rescue Kuwait and stop Iraq's threat. The harder this war is to win, the more I'm convinced that Saddam Hussein had to be stopped now, before his army grew even bigger, better equipped and armed with nuclear weapons.

Yours truly,

Karin McQuillan
