CITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

In Board of Aldermen, April 24, 1894, ~~February 24, 1894~~.

Whereas, In the opinion of this Board, the public necessity and convenience require that Norton street, a private way, so-called, between Avon and Bowdoin streets, should be widened and laid out as a public way of the City of Cambridge, at the width of thirty-five (35) feet, and that the grade thereof should be established, said Norton street, as widened, being bounded and described as follows:-

Beginning at a point in the easterly line of Avon street, at its intersection with the northerly line of Norton street, thence running northerly along said easterly line of Avon street, four (4) feet to the proposed new line of Norton street: thence running easterly along said new line, five hundred and eighteen and .22 (518.22) feet to the westerly line of Bowdoin street, at a point five and seventy-three hundredths (5.73) feet north of the northerly line of Norton street: thence running southerly along the westerly line of Bowdoin street, ^{thence running westerly, parallel to and 35 feet} thirty-five (35) feet distant from the said proposed new northerly line of Norton street, five hundred and eighteen and .47 (518.47) feet to the easterly line of Avon street: thence running northerly along said easterly line of Avon street, thirty-one (31) feet to the point of beginning. Containing eighteen thousand, one hundred and forty-two (18,142) square feet. The area herein bounded and described is included within the orange colored lines on a plan drawn by E. F. Bowker, dated October 3, 1892, and on file in the office of the City Engineer. Such taking and laying out to be done under the provisions of the ~~Massachusetts~~ statute authorizing the assessments of betterments.

Also, that the grade of said street widened and laid out as aforesaid should be established and that for the purpose of such widening and laying out it is necessary to take and lay out as a public street or way of the City of Cambridge, and a part of said Norton street, the following described parcels of land, to wit:-

A parcel of land belonging to Owners unknown being a street or way known as Norton street, bounded and described as follows, viz: Northwesternly by the present northwesterly line of Norton street about five hundred and eighteen and .3 (518.3) feet: northeasterly by the southwesterly line of Bowdoin street about twenty-seven (27) feet: southeasterly by the present southeasterly line of Norton street about five hundred and eighteen and .4 (518.4) feet: southwesterly by the northeasterly line of Avon street about twenty-seven (27) feet.
